“ Gram was the best. She loved all of us and gave us everything she could. She will forever be immortalized in the things we do; crocheting, gardening tomatoes and flowers, eating tomatoes and pickles like it's our jobs, and even being a bit sassy when we need to be.

She is my hero. She taught me how to be strong when I was breaking, how to stand my ground (except against her because she'd whoop my butt), that it's okay to be different when people expected me to follow the crowd (we were just a couple of Tom-Boys), how to forgive, and most importantly, how to love myself despite my flaws.

She will always be with me, in my hobbies, my actions, and in my heart.

I love you so much, Gram.
