“ *Dear Linda and Davidson family,
My deepest condolences go out to all of you. Mark made such an impact on my life not only as a nurse but personally. I always looked forward to our chats whether it was him being so interested in the recent trips I took, filling me in on how life is going and what next family gathering they had coming up, or bragging about the times he spent just simply watching football with Evan (along with showing off all the absolutely adorable pictures :)). He always made me feel so valued and brought the best spirits no matter how he was feeling! I will always treasure the time I got to spend with Mark. Thinking of and praying for all of you in these times.
All my love,
Nurse Ellen aka "Scoot" <3*

“ Dear Davidson family,

My deepest condolences for your loss. Mark and I were teammates at Brush High School. During track invitationals we had hours of sitting around time. We spent them talking and laughing. He was a really good man and will be missed.

“ Mark ,Andy Dingenary, Jay Bagdasarian and myself were very close friends for 45+ years and were in each other’s weddings.The 3 wives,Deb Rossy,Linda and Laurie Bagdasarian were all pregnant with all of our 1st children at the same time. We share MANY good times together and we will continue until we join Mark in heaven (at least I hope, not for the others but me ,God may put up the fence for me) Marks extended family along with Linda’s were always welcoming which makes our relationship even deeper. Rest easy my dear friend, I love ❤️ you and will miss the hell out our hour +long conversations. Till we meet again you’ll always be in my heart.

“ My dear cousin Mark was truly one of the kindest and loving men that Our Lord ever put on this earth. He was a gifted athlete, yet he was very humble with respect to his accomplishments. He was very successful in the business world and in was astutely aware of the financial world. A consummate family man who had endless love for his relatives. He fought valiantly in the battle against his leukemia. His faith and his bravery was an inspiration to many. He is the the arms of Our Lord now, which he has earned by his exemplary life. We can't see Mark anymore, but we can still love him! And we do love him!

Mark Davidson was one of the best people I've ever known. I knew Mark briefly from time with him at Brush High School, but then we re-connected in business at Gateway Megatech. Mark was the "best" salesman of all time. He had passion and caring for his customers. Having Mark as the field salesperson made my inside role so easy to manage with our customers. We enjoyed so many good times in business successes. Mark and I shared a special bond, we shared the same exact birthdate, 7/1/59. Every year, we tried to connect, sometimes golfing, other times a phone call or facebook message. Mark Davidson was a loving Husband, Father, Friend, he lived a life of caring for his family, always putting them first. I'm proud to have known Mark, and to share in his life in small part. If you have known Mark, you will have had the joy of knowing one of the best men God has blessed us with.
