“ So sad. She was such a GREAT gal, always smiling, humble, who inspired me. I always found it so remarkable that she was so involved, plus had her family to raise, but never got her driver's license, just like my mom! I have known her since the mid 70's, being a member of Advent and a Fairfax parent who suggested I become a poll worker, which I did and so enjoyed! Then her involvement with the PTA encouraged me to be a part of that too, where I met so many wonderful people! Bob and I will miss seeing her sitting in Advent's back pew. We are so sorry that we can't attend her services. Our deepest sympathy to all her wonderful family. Bob & Judy Elegante
