“ I will miss Aunt Kathy and her wonderful contagious smile!
Whatever the gathering or celebration you could always count on (aunt) Kathy to have a smile on her face, she always made you feel I like you were the most important person in the room. I always looked so forward to our family Christmas gathering, she always had small gifts for everybody just to let them know they were loved. Such a wonderful woman, mother, grandmother and great grandmother! love you (aunt) Kathy and will miss you very much!

“ I have known Kathy since I was a baby. Her daughters are my mom's best friends. Everytime my parents and I went to the Lake County Fair, she was there with her crafts of Native Americans and Zeebras along with other things. She always had that smile on her face when she saw me, she always said "Hi AJ!" very excitedly. Now I was too young to remember, but my mom, Dee Dee, Kim Hagy and Kim Kelly always went out to dinner on Tuesday nights. They did this for eight years. They were known as the "Tuesday Girls". When I was a little baby, Kathy would make my mom bring me when I was a baby to her house. She told my mom "Bring me AJ and you can hang out with Dee Dee". I was her "Native American papoose baby". This is why she called me her "papoose baby". This picture was taken on the floor in her family room. We will miss you Kathy and thanks for being my babysitter. One more picture. This picture with the little boy and the puppies, this boy originally had blonde hair and blue eyes. She sketched the blue eyes and the blonde hair with a brown pencil to make the boy look like me.

“ All I have to say is that Doug, Kim and Dee-Dee know what I mean when I say... thank you Kathy for all lovely dinners. Seemed that everytime I would come over for the night we would have burned baked beans and hot dogs. Dee-Dee... you always hate hot dogs so we would laugh bcz you only got the burnt (which is the way I still like them) beans only and Ron loved him some onions. Now for the most strange and funny part: EVERYTIME I would visit... I always had to go to the bathroom before going out or going swimming. What was really nice is that there was always plenty of reading material in there.. LOL!!
I love you Kathy and I will always miss you!!
