“ Dear Kathy and Rich,

So sorry to hear of Auntie Minka's passing. I remember her as a very kind and happy person who always seemed to have a smile on her face. It's fitting that her obit mentions her cooking as I still remember her delicious stuffed cabbage and pierogies. You could tell they were made with love and she was proud of them. Perhaps more impressive than her cooking skills was her ability to keep up with Uncle Ray, who I remember being the life of the party at many a wedding. Such warm and fun people. Our prayers are with you and we hope you had a chance to say goodbye. In honor of Auntie Minka we have made a donation to Bella Care Hospice.

*Love,
Larry & Mary Marvar*
