“ You don't know me but I was Mary's neighbor patient while she was in the hospital and was there the night she passed. I wanted to extend my sympathies as I didn't want to intrude on your family at that time. I am so terribly sorry for your loss. I could tell how much she loved her family by how often she would mention them and how she would light up when her sons came to see her. I'm sorry I never got to actually know her but for the very short time I did I thought she was a really lovely soul. I am again so sorry for your loss but I'm certain she is in God's love & light and will of course always love her family. God bless you dear McFadden family.

“ I have so many pleasant memories of Kay when I was young. I was always treated like a family member when I would visit. Kay was a young mother who was actually pretty cool. I was born to very ethnic parents and it made me feel very American spending time at their house. Her eyesight and hearing were exceptional especially when we were doing things we didn't want her to know. I remember she kept a spotless house and as kids we made sure to respect that when we were over. She loved to dance and have a good time because she was young at heart. A truly amazing beautiful soul who will be missed by many of us.
