“ I took piano lessons from this lovely lady for many years. I was just in awe of her as a kid and had even looked her up when my kids were needing piano lessons but unfortunately by then she was retired. I will always hold fond memories of her in her beautiful matching outfits and jewelry. She was truly an inspiration to me as a young girl. Thank you Mrs. Washburn!

“ It was 1963 when I was 12 and stepped into the home of a gracious woman always dressed in flowing dresses and adorned with jewels lightly clicking as she danced her fingers over the piano keys. She sat regally as she gently lifted my wrists up into the correct playing position. I will forever remember her lilting laughter as she introduced me to a world I so wished to be a part of. Thank you Mrs. Washburn.
