“ Growing up next door to Mary, I felt like an extension of her family.
She was like another grandmother to me, and I'll always remember the hours I spent with her in her kitchen. Whenever I bake an apple pie, I'll remember Mary teaching me her secret ratio for the perfect crust. She was such a huge presence for every Christmas Eve and every Fourth of July, and she'll always have a place in my heart.

“ Mary was a wonderful friend and neighbor. We moved in next door to Mary and Stan thirty years ago and were gifted with a grandmother for my children, an advisor to my garden, and a friend I could always rely on. She included us in her family, for which I will always be grateful.

“Mary was a beautiful sister-in-law in so many ways. She always made me feel like she cared. And indeed she did for so many family members and friends. Her pepper gardens were lush and I do believe she is enjoying a delicious pepper and Italian bread sandwich in the heavens right now. Thank you for sharing so many super recipes.”
