“ Bookclub Babes met yesterday and raised our glasses and toasted Marylyn ... one of the funniest, kindest, wittiest Babes in the group! We had some good laughs reminiscing about her book discussion comments and book ratings - and even spoke about how Marylyn might have rated our recent book. Our prayers of comfort & love continue to flow for the family all those who call her friend! Here are a few of my favorite Bookclub photos with Marylyn. We will continue to keep her in our hearts and of course our book discussions!

“ Marylyn was a best friend. We've know each other 40 years and the thought of her gone leaves me speechless... she knew I didn't like Sunday afternoons/evenings so every Sunday she would call me. I'd say Hello, she'd say, CAROLYN and I'd say MARYLYN.. we'd laugh each time like it was the first time we did it.. and taking her and Noreen to look for cornstalks in the Fall was something I'll never forget. I was the driver, they stole them out of a field.. and there were the Monkey Balls out of someone's front yard. She still has some by her front door.. we would laugh a lot, we cried at times but she was always there for me or anyone. How I will miss her...

“ My heartfelt sympathy to the entire Bielfelt family. I know that I am a better Christian woman having known Marylyn. Anyone who ever met Marylyn knew that she was one of the most kind and loving women that they would ever have the privilege of knowing. Marylyn was a true example of the Christ Child Society of the Western Reserve and she will be deeply missed. Our Chapter has a guardian angel watching over us now. Love you Marylyn.

“ The world is still turning, but it is turning slower. The sun is still shining but its not as warm . The moon and stars will be out but their glow will not be as enchanting. I'll never pass a tree without thinking about how much you loved all things natural. Thank you God for giving us this beautiful person and sharing her with us, but you took her away too soon. She was a wonderful sister, in all honesty, the very best.

“ Words cannot express the loss we all feel at the passing of Marilyn. Marilyn was a beautiful woman in all ways - living with charm, humor, and grace. We will miss her terribly, but there is comfort in the faith that she is with the angels now, and she will be a beacon of light for all of us who knew her.

“ Marylyn was a vivacious and enthusiastic person who brightened the day for those fortunate enough to share time with her. Her passing leaves those of us who have worked and gardened with her over the past decade bereaved and sympathetic to her dear family. Every time I see a blossom in the garden I will remember her and smile to think of our shared love of Nature and all it affords it's inhabitants.

For my best friend Paula and mother, Marylyn! I loved your mother so much. I wish I could go back in time and live all the wonderful times over again. I especially enjoyed late night movie watching Sound of Music drinking Tea and her Christmas cookies. Rest in peace dearest Marylyn.

Dearest Chris! We had soooooooooo many cherished memories! Too many to count. Stroyer often says how those were his best memories and his happiest times. Thank you for giving us these magical moments in life and sharing these pictures. There was such an abundance of love. In fact, as I am writing this I can feel my heart swelling with love and happiness! It was joy, laughter, love...I look forward to when all the Christmas angels will gather again in heaven and we shall all search for the BIGGEST Christmas tree, wrestle it inside, and decorate it. Cookies will be baking. Drinks will be pouring. Games will be playing (spoons & Pictionary). I am smiling in the warm embrace of all of this! I love you Chris!

“ Such a lovely picture of Marylyn. How I will miss seeing Marylyn and little Benny on their walks. She would always take the time to stop and chat about our families and the neighborhood. Such a loss to everyone who knew her but especially, of course, her family. I am sorry I missed her last month when I stopped by to drop something off. Marla and Paula had taken her with them for an outing. I am so sad I was not able to see her and give her a hug. My sincere sympathy to Art, Marla and Paula and your families in the loss of your amazing wife, mother and grandmother.

“ A true Angel has been called home.....she has done all of her assignments well.....she will be painting and gardening in God's Kingdom.....she will spread laughter and smiles throughout our Universe.....Kindness and giving that she mastered here will now be one of the silver strings which will still be attached to those who knew her if not for a life time but for a moment as they were lucky enough to get a passing glance of her. Well done Marilyn as you are greeted in Heaven with songs.....smiles.....hugs..... gardens.....and You.
May now dance with Joy and sparkles.....this incredible woman has taught us all just how it's done..... Celebrate her..... she would want us to.....love Nancy & Jim Tracz

“ I only met Marylyn about a year and a half ago but immediately loved her. She took time to listen to others and always greet people with warmth and a smile. Even though I New her such a short time I valued her friendship. She will be greatly missed. I pray for comfort for her family and friends.

“ The world has lost an amazing woman. I am a pastry chef because of Mrs. B. I loved watching her decorate cakes when I was growing up and that is where my love for baking began. I envied her hair in the 80's! Always loved spending the night down there and listening to her talk to Cuddles. Who can forget her laugh...it was the best. And she raised two amazing women. She will be missed so much by so many people. ❤️ ❤️ ❤️

“ The way she would say my name, in only a way she could, when we met always warmed my heart. She was a second "Melshore mom" to me. A beautiful, kind soul whose love of nature was evident in her baking, painting, and garden. She was a big part of my life for 40 years. I am truly heartbroken that I will never feel her embrace again, but am comforted in knowing she is in God's embrace now. I love you.
