“Her loving arms reached out and she embraced one and all. An endless meadow of flowers, a panorama of beauty, of lives that she touched. Every blossom she did care and every flower she did love. Now she's nestled in our hearts and it's there she remains. And that beauty she created? That beauty she nurtured? All of that beauty- that beauty will bloom on and on.

“ I met Melissa when our sons were in YMCA day camp together when they were 3 years old. She became a surrogate mom for both of my sons while I was finishing college. I never left Melissa's house without learning something new. That was always such a gift. Her smile, her gentle nature. Her willingness to step in, step up and help is something I will never forget, and have always been so grateful for. She was a beautiful person, and incredible human being. She will be missed.... the world has lost one of the good ones.

“ My Aunt Melissa meant so much to me. She was always kind, and she was there for me and my mom when we really needed it. A true role model in every sense of the term - I literally would not be the person I am today had she not been a part of my life. She will be deeply missed.
