Uncle Midge's surprise birthday party, this was taken 2009. He was a wonderful Uncle, I admired him when I was young, when my mother (sister, Aunt Deacon) was staying with me, Uncle Midge stay with me also, I got to know what a wonderful brother he was to his siblings and the love he had for everyone he knew. He brought laughter and smiles to everyone he met. He will sadly be missed and loved by my family.

Karen and Ron Harshman, thanks for bringing him back to life with that video. That was a most wonderful day. Forever loved and missed. So privileged to be there. Thanks Denise and Butch Ahlbrandt for having the celebration. And btw, he was playing You Are My Sunshine, I think. I heard Ray Charles singing on Pandora Saturday, and remembered his photos with Ray in the 60's on Ray's private plane at the airport in Cleveland. He made his way in to see and document all of celebrities and politicians in lifetime, because he was the most charismatic man I think anyone could ever know.
