“ Uncle Mike had the pleasure of looking after me one afternoon. We worked up quite the appetite after a few holes of Tiger Woods golf on the Xbox. He asked “what do you want to eat Charlie?” After slight ponder, I replied “chicken wings!” Mike chuckles, “chicken wings, you want chicken wings? I know the best chicken wings in town. But you can’t tell your parents.”

Hooters continues to reserve a special place in my heart.

Mike and I shared a unique bond and always provided some really great advice. The purest example of altruism.. Leaving too soon, he will be dearly missed.
