“ Mr. Panfil was a nice man. My fondest memory of him would be that he never made a difference with me. He accepted me into his home when some did not. I spent a lot of time at his home with my buddy Holly. I enjoyed my first meal of chicken divan with the Panfil's and it was delightful!! I appreciate the man you were to your family. To the family of Michael Panfil so sorry for your loss. May God Bless and watch over you all.

“ Mr panfil was a great guy . As a kid I hung out at there house a lot. And I always respected him . He was father to his girls . I thought he had a great job he once explained to me about how he grew crystals and every time I see a crystal I think of him.
