“ We have so many great memories. Mike made you believe in yourself. He always wanted his students to shine-- it was never about his own glory. We can remember so many of his words of wisdom. " Be on your foot, not beyond it." "Soften your knees." "Inch by inch anything's a cinch". And so many more. Mike will be missed- - such a class act. Ann Slogar

“ I worked with Michael Patrick and Kathy Longhurst at Arthur Murray dance studio in the 1980s. He was such an inspiration and a great dancer. He could lead you through steps you've never done before and barely touch you. But you knew exactly what to do. It was so amazing and he was so quick to share his knowledge and to answer questions and help you along the way. He was a great individual and will be greatly missed. My condolences to Kathy whom I knew at that time also.
