“ Michelle was one of the warmest, most loving women. I will miss our long talks and catch-ups on what was happening in our families. My cousin always had the most beautiful gift of hospitality. Always welcoming and opening her heart to all. For many years we sat on her front lawn and watched fireworks from the Mardi Gras.

“Michelle was one of a kind. A good soul, always in good mood, welcoming and heart warming. When I was with Kevin and Michelle she made me feel home, when Natalie and I visited it was the same with her as well as our daughter, later. We will always love and remember you Michelle - and we will miss you so much!

“ I was fortunate enough to marry into the Smitko/Giuliano family, a family full of warmth and fun. I met Michelle as a preteen and was immediately impressed with what a sweet nature she had. She was always full of warm, encouraging words and I loved her immediately. Michelle, you will be so missed. Kevin, my thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I have known Michelle since I met her sister, Sandy. This was late 80's. My first impression was a woman full of love, light and positivity. She guided a lot of young people in life, between childcare and helping international students, she always impressed me with her kindness and patience. You will be greatly missed Michelle. Sending Love to wrap your family and friends in comfort. Rest easy.

“ When I came to the US to be an Exchange student in 95....her warmth was the first I saw...although she was not my host....but I hugged her FIRST (she was a hugger). SHE was the woman of LOVE....I will ALWAYS remember her like she were.....LOVE and KINDNESS. I will ALWAYS see you as my Hostmum Michelle though it went to another situation. Rest in peace beautiful Michelle

“Michelle was my son’s second mom. She watched him from six weeks old thru high school ( not that he needed to go to Michelle’s house after sixth grade but because he was too lazy to walk to our house and according to him “Michelle is a much better cook!) I still can’t believe she is gone. We will miss her.
