

Myrna Loy (Faux) Iorio

September 8, 1947 - December 29, 2025

Myrna Loy (Faux) Iorio, lovingly known as “Lola,” age 78, of Mentor, Ohio, passed away on December 29, 2025, at her residence. She was born on September 8, 1947, in Zambales, Philippines.

Myrna moved to the United States at the age of 16, settling in Peoria, Illinois, where she completed high school. In 1972, she married her husband, Frank T. Iorio, and together they built a life centered on family, friendship, and joy. Early in their marriage, they lived in Grand Forks, North Dakota, during Frank’s career in the U.S. Air Force, before returning to Ohio, which became home for most of their lives.

One of Myrna’s most cherished chapters was living abroad in England, where the family of four traveled at every opportunity, creating memories and friendships she held close throughout her life. Travel with family and friends remained one of her greatest joys.

Known for her lighthearted spirit and infectious laugh, Myrna had a remarkable ability to put people instantly at ease. Independent, spontaneous, and generous, she had a gift for connecting with others - often turning chance encounters into lifelong friendships. She loved music and was always singing or humming, laughed at funny movies as if she were seeing them for the first time, and found simple joy in basking in the sunshine, cooking new recipes, or tending to plants and flowers.

Above all else, Myrna valued her family. As “Lola,” she embodied warmth, devotion, and love, and was immensely proud of her grandchildren, serving as their most enthusiastic cheerleader. A strong proponent of education, she instilled in her children the values of hard work and striving to excel, always putting family first.

Myrna is survived by her daughter, Jennifer (Todd) Leombruno; her son, Brian (Sarah) Iorio; her beloved grandchildren, Max and Alex Leombruno; and her companion, David Hutchinson.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Noel and Lourdes Faux; her husband, Frank T. Iorio; and her cherished granddaughter, Maria L. Iorio.

A Funeral Mass will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, January 13, 2026, at St. Mary of the Assumption Church, 8560 Mentor Avenue, Mentor, Ohio 44060. Please meet at the church.

We only knew each other for 2 years or so but, You were a great friend to Piper and I. Thank you for adopting us! I will always remember how kind, humble and generous you were to everyone that you loved. You will be missed immensely. Godspeed my friend.

“ My dearest friend, like a sister. First person I talked to every morning and last person I talked to at night. I lived 100 feet from her and she would walk over or I would walk over there. When icy, would drive over and funny story, Hutch drove her over my house and Myrna put her seatbelt on. Went shopping often and lunch once a week. Shared a lot of great times and laughs that I will cherish and remember forever. Our dogs were best friends too, Alphonse and Lucy. Condolences to all her friends and family.

Love you Myrna- Lola ❤️❤️❤️

“ Our deepest sympathy to the family of Myrna, a lifelong friend of ours. Words cannot convey how special her parents, Lou & Noel, were in our lives ,and later when Frank & her returned to Mentor from the Air Force, the deep friendship we had formed. Praying that as she gets her angel wings & joins her parents & those relatives in Heaven, she will rest in the Lord’s peace & serenity. She will be dearly missed as the rest of her family, who she joins in Heaven.

From the time that I first met Myrna in Liverpool 35 years ago, she became a very special friend. In the last few years, I got to know her again after Clive and I visited the US and she visited the UK. She was full of life and always ready to do something and go somewhere. Only last year she drove us down to Pittsburgh and insisted that we went on to Falling Water - as she knew we would love it. Myrna was always very kind and thoughtful and wanted all around her to be happy and at ease I will always miss her and Clive will too. With our deepest sympathies to the family.
