“ I am so sorry for your family’s loss. Nancy, I had so many great memories with you. You truly were such an amazing woman. Rest In Peace.

“ Heart felt and deepest sympathy go out to Nancy's family.

Nancy had the biggest heart and so much kindness. My most cherished and happiest memories with her were hanging out in her flower shop when she had to work long hours. I remember going to visit her at Friday's and so many of her coworkers thought we were sisters.

Although we drifted apart in the last several years I was happy she was able to meet my husband. I have so missed her company, conversation and laughs.

God must have been missing an angel to take her so young.

*Love you Nancy,

“ Nancy was one of the nicest sweetest and kindest people I have ever had the privilege of knowing in my entire life. I worked with her for many years at Friday's and she made each and every day there a better day. Always easy to talk to. We had an awful lot in common. I have a lot of acquaintances and not a lot of friends and I can honestly say from the first time I met her she is my friend. I will miss you buddy. Love Connie

“ I'm heartbroken but grateful we became so close during the years you trusted me with the most important things in your life, Sonya and Denver and your flower shop. I never took either of those responsibilities lightly. I learned so much from you and you became more than an Aunt. You were my friend. I always looked forward to our talks! Whenever I smell eucalyptus I still think of you. I know you're with Grandma and Grandpa but I'm so sad you aren't with our family anymore. I love you Aunt Nancy!

Call me. Don't call me. See if I CARE?

"Oh come on now Kevin you don't really mean that do you? Here have a cookie."

A cookie? What in the hell am I suppose to do with a cookie Nancy?

"It'll make you feel better...Here try one."

Damn it Nancy....Look, when you grow up in a big ginormous family either someone's getting lost or you get told to get lost sooner or later. When Sharon called to tell me the news I went from SHOCK into cardiac arrest. I'm totally DEVASTATED and HEARTBROKEN!

Out of ALL of my sisters Nancy was the BEST of the best. I loved her dearly. She was kind, considerate, compassionate, funny...Nancy was all that AND more! Her only flaw was she had no sense of direction despite having a GPS system in her car! Now I'm the one who's totally lost..."Figures don't it?"

Nancy loved her kids Sonya and Denver. She loved her grandson Xander.

Nancy was a hugger. Nancy was a giver. Nancy was genuinely a very kind soul who will forever be missed despite kicking the crap out of me when we were younger...YES I do remember!

See you on the other side...

"Hey what's up?"

I think it was hypoglycemia.

"Are you still doing that?"

Hey when you've been sheltering in place for as long as I have....Did you read my post?

"I DID! Oh that was so sweet....kinda...sorta."

Everybody's a critic. Listen, I've been planning this big Irish wake on your behalf but, well, you know...

"I do...Everybody needs to knock it off."

...A thousand dozen red roses. The Edinburgh military pipes and drums blasting "Amazing Grace". The blue Angels zooming past by overhead in honor of Dad...and hinting at the song "Spirit in the Sky"...

"Sounds great...I'll be sure to attend...pfft."

You better. The proof is in the pudding and it's a great life if you don't weaken. We'll talk again later. Gotta go. bye

"You doin' O.K.?"

Nancy?

"What? Did I say something wrong?"

Bagpipes, potatoes, castles in the sky...everything's a blur..I haven't drank in 25 years and now I've lost my wallet along with my equilibrium...I blame you.

"ME?"

I can't even organize my own sock drawer let alone an Irish wake..I don't know anything anymore....Are we even Irish?

Grief sucks...I haven't cried this much since Mom died if you want to know the honest to God's truth. Why didn't you call me?

"I DID!...and you hung up on me."

SO WHAT! I hang up on everyone sooner or later. I didn't mean anything by it. I kept meaning to call you back but I thought you'd call me...I have to throw up now.

"Sorry I asked?..Thanks for sharing?...Learn to self edit?"

Aaaargh. I think I puked up my pancreas. What is that my liver?

"Oh yuck"

No one ever said grief had to be pretty...,I think I remember why I quit drinking 25 years ago anyway....Nancy?

"WHAT?"

Those we love don't go away. They walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near. Still loved. Still missed. And very dear.

"Why didn't you say that in the first place?"

It's a process....A very long and painful process. We good?

"I guess."

WHAT?

"Oh give me a hug."

I love you too...THERE are you happy now?

"Not until you cut that beard."

Sisters...ugh.

Flying flowers, flying flowers red, yellow. blue....Bargaining, anger, denial, depression and acceptance.

"What in the heck are you talking about now?"

I don't know Nancy. This is just too messed up. I can see you in my minds eye crying AND then laughing through the tears...I just can't remember what the conversation was about.

"I know."

WELL?

"Well what?"

What was that in reference to?

"How should I know?"

I thought you just said you knew?

"No I didn't"

Alright this is getting ridiculous.

"I told you so."

Ugh!....Sisters.

"UGH!....BROTHERS!"

Grief is the powerful, multifaceted and often uncontrollable response human beings experience following a personally painful or traumatic experience....that transforms us into the dysfunctional, sometimes self-destructive, neurotic, uncommunicative basket cases we all know and love.

"Wait...Are you talking about me?"

You , Me, Us, Them....Nancy what difference does it make?

"I think it makes a lot of difference."

Well then maybe you should've died after me and then you could've talked about your own spiritual path, mindful meditation or whatnot...Now I forgot what I was tryin' to say. Something about appreciation and gratitude....About how to do the grief thing in such a way that I now can't figure out.

"That's life bro. Nobody's perfect. We do the best we can and then we move on."

How?

"In our own way...In our own time...According to God's plan. Everything has a purpose and a meaning."

My life's not gonna be the same without you ya know.

"I know."

Alright now this REAL LY is getting ridiculous.

Those we love don't go away. They walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard but always near. Still loved. Still missed. And very dear.

Then WE ALL started singing, WE sang...

Lord, I know.....I know I've been changed.

I know.....I know I've been changed.

I know....I know I've been changed.

The angels in heaven done signed my name.

The "Angels in Heaven" done signed my name.

"Seriously?"

Hey you're the one who told me about there being a purpose and a meaning to everything good, bad or indifferent....I like the Staple singers version although Chris Rodrigues and the Spoon Lady do a pretty great job themselves as far as Gospel music goes.

Take your pick. It's your funeral!

"Life IS about choices."

Can you be a little more specific?...Hey Nancy?

Those we love don't go away. They walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near. Still loved. Still missed. And very dear.

"A Southern Gospel Revival - Jamie Wilson - Ain't No Grave"

Good pick. Very inspirational...Now if I could only get that song "Angels In Heaven" by Abby the Spoon Lady and Chris Rodriguez out of my brain....Did you read that article titled "Into the eye of the cytokine storm" ?

"I DID!"

Well?

"Grief has led you on a spiritual path to microbiology?"

AND?

"Enjoy every sandwich?"

What the heck"s that suppose to mean?

"What do you think it means?"

The food supply chain? African swine flu? How am I suppose to know?

"In your own time....In your own way....According to God's plan."

And where have I heard those words before?

Those we love don't go away. They walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near. Still loved. Still missed. And very dear.

"You ever gonna trim your beard?"

One of these days I might....maybe.

"Many are called but few are chosen?"

Alright! That's it! I've officially gone coo-coo for cocoa puffs.

"You're the one who said you wanted closure."

SO WHAT! I say stuff all the time... WHO CARES!

"Exactly!"

So now you're resorting to emotional blackmail?

"If you say so. Try reading...."Structural Basis for Potent Neutralization of Betacoronaviruses by Single-Domain Camelid Antibodies"

What about listening to "The Great Gig In The Sky" by Pink Floyd?

"I'll tell Mom and Dad you said hi."

Thank You Nancy. I love you. Rest in Peace. Remember to tell Mom Happy Mothers Day for me!
