“ I hadn't known that Nancy passed away in 2022. I only just found out April 2024, after being told that her son, Chip had passed away. I knew her for a very long time. She shared many wonderful stories of her children, the company they built, the different homes, cars and boats they owned. Trips on Lake Erie with her husband Pete, coming through horrendous thunderstorms, believing they'd never make it back, buying an older home on 3 acres of land and making it into the majestic home and beachfront property that it is today. It was truly a dream come true for her. And all her favorite trips to Aruba. She sure was a character. She would seriously injure herself by her quick and unexpected movements that she should never had tried. Falling off a swivel chair while reaching up to clean a fan blade! Stepping off a curb in Aruba trying to race across the road before the light changed. She loved entertaining her prominent friends in the community. She was a proud mother and grandmother. May her family be comforted in this time of sorrow.
