“ Nancy was my beloved cousin. The daughter of my mother's twin sister, she and Barbara were the closest thing to being siblings to me, an only child. I always looked with anticipation when Nancy and the other Lefevres' came to visit with us, the Corwins' in Galion, or when we travelled to Cleveland to be with them.

Nancy enjoyed life through her children and grandchildren. She was an avid Indians' and Browns' fan and found much entertainment in going to the theatre and the movies. She was raised in a solid Christian family and these values and her relationship with the Lord grew throughout the years. She knew the Lord well, and now she can rest in His loving arms with her new, perfected body relieved of all pain, suffering, or strife!

Nancy loved games. It was in those many board games where one could experience her intensity and desire to Win! :- ) She also loved her little companion animal, Zoey, and no dog enjoyed any greater benefits of human love and fun – they made a wonderful twosome!

Nancy was an accomplished woman of business. An ardent worker who inspired and motivated others in the workplace – and she proved to be a very good provider as a single mother, instilling positive work values in her children.

Nancy enjoyed scrap-booking and became a very skilled greeting card maker. She put so much of herself in those various cards that it was always a special pleasure when I'd receive one of those special non-Hallmark, “Made-by-Nancy in Love” creations!

Above all, what I'll remember and cherish the most about my dear cousin Nancy was her courage, strength, and tenacity to fight on, through the slings and arrows of whatever life through at her – she was, oftentimes, my hero. Rest in peace dear lady – see ya later in the Great Beyond! Love always, Monte
