“ I've only known Nancy a little over a year when I moved in across the street from her and she was my first neighbor/friend to introduce herself and to those around me. When I raise a glass of red wine now, I will think of her. I will miss seeing her pattering around the front yard. She had an amazing green thumb and she was my inspiration to "green up" my yard. She knew everyone and everyone loved her. I will miss seeing Rhee in the front door when weather permitted. You will be truly missed!
