

Naomi Sonja Pierce

November 26, 1937 - February 12, 2026

Naomi Sonja Pierce, 88, of Concord Township, passed away February 12, 2026 at Aria of Gates Mills. She was born November 26, 1937 in Bentleyville, PA., to the late Esau and Beulah Izett.

Sonja was known for her kind heart, strength, compassion and dedication to her family and friends. She worked as a registered nurse for over 50 years and was deeply respected by colleagues and friends alike. Outside of work, she enjoyed tending to her flowers, volunteering, and spending time with her loved ones. She had a special place in her heart for making everyone feel welcome, offering wise advice, and bringing people together.

Survivors include her husband of 58 years, Roger Pierce; daughter, Tracy Pierce, son, Nathan Pierce; brother, Keith (Stefani) Izett.

Preceding Sonja in death are her sisters, Donna (H. Franics) Richards, Audrey (Howard) Street and Jean (Joseph) Chilbert.

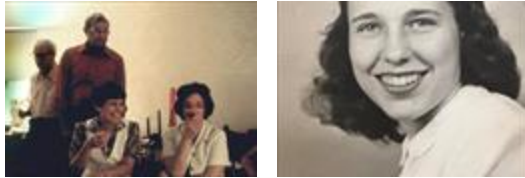

A private family burial will be held Monday, February 16, 2026 at Western Reserve Memorial Gardens, Chesterland.

“ Sonja and I along with are families were neighbors in the Hunt Club for thirty years. She was a lovely lady, who had an artistic way with fresh flowers. Always enjoyed seeing her beautiful pots of flowers placed around her deck every summer. Beautify heaven Sonja! My sincere sympathy to Roger, Tracy, and Nate.

*My last words to my mother was,
She is so beautiful and I loved her. I hugged and kissed her. She said the same back to me with a kiss. I'm grateful I had the opportunity to connect with her in such a deep meaningful way. We'll always stay connected, she my mother, my everything💕*
