“ Neil was a wonderful father-in-law and grandfather. We will always remember the laughter, happy times and his birthday serenades.

Thanks Cara. I'm going to miss those serenades! Most people got it in a too short phone call. Imagine that all day long. Lol

“ I worked as an inspector with both Wayne and Neil at Towmotor, and Neil and I were quality analysts at Cat's Pontiac Plant till both of us retired, Both Neil and Wayne were different but both were a lot of fun and unique in their own ways. Safe pranks were the duty of the day. Neil had a custom home built in Pontiac. The contractor did a bad job on most of the home-building functions. He asked me to give him an estimate of the damages which I did, about 4 months later a Judge call me up and asked me to give him details about this estimate, I had to look it up, then I saw it was Neil's Job. I told the Judge that I have been in the business for 25 years at that time and had never seen anything so poor on so many functions. The Judge thanked me for my time went back into court and gave Neil more money than he had asked for. True Story. See ya soon bud. Gary LaVorgna

“ So, if I would have been a lil quicker with my phone, I would have gotten the moast amazing video of my dearest pops playing the air guitar!! I told him, Kyle taught me to play a mean air guitar!! But I used his back scratcher... he said give me that.. and he threw his head back and forth, and his teeth sticking out, playing the air guitar.. love ya poor! Will miss you forever!!
