“ Dear Grandma, I miss you so much and I wish so badly I could talk to you. I need to hear you tell me that it is going to be ok. I know that you would want us all to take care of each other and be there together so we will. I will try to live in a way that would make you proud. I will think about you every day and share the stories and memories I have. I will forever carry on the traditions you have shared with us all and I will smile at all the memories I am so grateful to have. I need to figure out how to make a cup of tea taste as good as yours did. But in my heart I know it will never be the same, because it was your company that I enjoyed the most. You are the heart of this family and always will be. My sweet grandma, God may have you in his keeping now and I will have you in my heart. I miss and love you.

“ Dear Mother-in-law,

I am extremely grateful to have had you in my life all these years and will continue to carry you in my heart. Mother-in-laws are often at times considered to be mean and strict, but when God made you he broke the mold, as you were the best! You always filled the family with happiness and love. I will miss your smile and your cute little English laugh. I have always thought of you as an angel, and now you truly are.

Dear Mother-in-law, as you watch over us from heaven above, please continue to fill us with happiness and love.

“ My Dearest Grandma, Word's cannot express how much you mean to me and how much I miss you. I will forever miss our phone calls almost everyday, our laughs, and your infectious smile. You have been a true inspiration to all that was around you. We will continue to carry on your traditions and always be together as a family, because that was the most important thing to you. I will always carry you in my thought, heart & prayers. Until I get to see you again Grandma, I love you

*With love always,

“ Mom,

My heart is broken without you. I miss your beautiful smile and your sweet English accent and your lovely cups of tea. Your kindness, wisdom, strength, patience, grace and faith are the way you lived and set examples to those around you.. You touched everyone you met with your caring and cheerful spirit. You truly have been the most important person in my life and I am so blessed to call you Mom. You will always be in my thoughts and forever live in my heart. I know you are no longer in pain and resting in Our Lords loving arms. Until we meet again, I love you.

“ Grandma,
I am extremely fortunate that I could marry into a family that was forged with your love, morals, and thoughtfulness. I'll always cherish your sense of humor, appreciate your wisdom, and envy the unfair advantage Mentor now has over Saint Ignatius with you watching over them. You truly were the rock for so many people. I'll miss your offer for a cup of tea or glass of wine on one of my stop overs but will make sure I continue the tradition with Grandpa. You've touched so many people in so many different ways that the memories of you will live on forever. I know you will continue to watch over us as your find eternal peace with your savior. I love you Grandma.

“ Hi grandma, miss and love you lots. I'll miss how happy you'd share our memories of sleepovers when I was little and all the stuffed animals I brought. You'd laugh about it and I'll miss that. Waking up to tea and raisin toast on your glass table with your perfect placemats. Your clean, clean house and making the bed, patting the pillows to keep them fresh. You are so proper and perfect. I hope I can be closer to who were are. You always had the kindest words and not one mean bone in your body no matter what. You will always be around, under the spreading, chestnut, "hands up", or "for hes a jolly good fellow", your words and your spirits will be with all of your family and I'm truly grateful I got to be your granddaughter. I love your forever grandma! Thank you and I will see you later

“ Grandma, words can not explain how much I miss you, how much we all miss you. I miss your smile, I miss your voice, (your accent) I miss the songs you would always sing to the family or with the family. But most of all I miss just being around you. Rest in peace my beautiful grandma. I love you always.

“ I miss you so much Grandma. I miss our talks about food, about sports, about everything. You taught me so much, and you made me a better person. I know I wasn't on the phone with you when Jen told you about us getting engaged, but i heard your excitement, and its something I will never forget. You loved your family so much and all you wanted was to see us happy. I will always keep you in my heart and try to make you proud. I will keep our traditions going, because that is one of the things you taught us, and it will continue to unite us going forward. Love you always. I will see you again.
