“ Olga scared the crap out of me when I first met her, but she became a dear friend and wonderful support. She was such a fighter as a steward. My son's loved learning soccer tips from her and it was wonderful spending a few holidays together. She made a damn good pumpkin pie. I was looking forward to seeing her at the steward conference just that weekend. I will miss her.

“ Olga was a one of a kind individual with a kind soul and a a good heart. Although I had known her for only a short time, she had an impact on my life and career and I will always remember our days of working together fondly. She always impressed me with her zest for life and her "slightly cantankerous" personality. I enjoyed our time together and she will be sadly missed by those that knew her.
