April 26, 1942 - July 18, 2019

Paul M. Wiatrowski, 77, of Mentor, died July 18, 2019 at Chardon Healthcare. He was born April 26, 1942 in Cleveland. Paul graduated from Eastlake North High School and attended The Ohio State University before enlisting in the Army.

Surviving Paul are his daughters, Natalie (Matthew) Urbas and Adrienne (Ryan) Fox; and his grandchildren, Allison, Paul, Samantha, Madilynn and Talia.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Donna; parents, Stanley and Mary Wiatrowski and step – father, Louis Mack.

“ Hello, Natalie and Adrienne. I am your old neighbor on Harland. So sorry to see your Dad passed. It is hard to loose both parents so young. In the obit, you mentioned he enjoyed a good Manhattan. I will never forget when I was rototilling my garden and he brought me out Manhattan on a Saturday when he was still wearing his suit! He said I looked like I needed this! Both your parents were so sweet. Miss the old hood. God bless you and peace. Julie Wendt

Julie, thank you for your kind words. I remember you fondly and am not surprised at all by my father's actions towards you. He was always the best dressed man I knew, the most hospitable and undoubtedly the most kind. I'm glad you have such fond memories of him as well.

“ Beautiful in Blue was purchased for the family of Paul M. Wiatrowski.

“ I remember the day I first met Mr. Wiatrowski. I was working as an assistant to Natalie at the Tech Center. I was standing at the door looking out and this gentleman dressed in a three piece suit and hat looking very stylish was walking toward our door. As i opened the door I could smell his cologne, he instantly gave me a smile. My first thought was that there must be an important meeting in the building, he looked like a man of importance. It turns out he was a very important person, he was the father of my very good friend Natalie Urbas. His wonderful smile and twinkling eyes instantly put me at ease. We were barely introduced when he started telling me a joke. It was no surprise to find out he was Natalies dad. I know he is enjoying the embrace of his beautiful wife again and charming all with his smile and personality. He will be missed but never forgotten.
