“ Where do I begin?

Since I can remember,(age 4) Penny was always there for me. From my “big wheel” rides down to her house, and jumping in bed with Penny, and Billy bright, and early on Saturday mornings. To my most fondest childhood memories. The summers spent with, Penny. The trips to Tygart damn, the Friday nights at Geneva in the lake, the fancy dinners at quail hollow, the emails, and phone calls every February 5th(my birthday) Penny never forgot a single birthday of mine.

Penny was like a second mother to me in my adolescent years. I will always love you, Penny!

The memories I have will forever be cherished.

Thank you for all the love that you gave me.

Jonathon.
