“ Sharon & Family.

Sorry I could not make it to the visitation. Between work & storms no way to get over to Mentor. Pete was a wonderful man, full of fun and knowledge. I used to call him "Herr Buehner" and we would sit and chat American history at lunch. He will be sorely missed. My sympathies to you all in this sad time.

“ I too knew Pete from my years working at University Hospitals. Pete always had an inquisitive mind, a cheery disposition, and was helpful to all. He also had a great gift of being able to filter out all that wasn't really important and focusing on what was. I am saddened to hear you have lost this good man.

“ My 39 years performing eye surgery at University Hospitals was enriched by Pete Buehner's personal and professional presence in the UH OR. I am sad that Pete did not get to experience a longer time after retirement to pursue his Renaissance Man interests. My sympathy to his family. William J. Reinhart MD (Bill)

“ As the days pass Sharon, remembering the many happy times is what will bring comfort for the family. I pray the love of God enfolds you during your journey through grief. There are no words that can unbreak your hearts at this time. But we have hope from the scriptures, the bible say; “resurrection of our beloved ones is through Jesus Christ. In the Christ all will be made alive”. (1 Corinthians 15:21, 22) your wonderful memories are what Peter would want for you at this time. A poem says it best; “I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done, I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times and bright and summer days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun, of happy memories that I leave when life is done.” “Blessed be... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulations”. (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.) May God's Holy Scriptures whisper words of comfort into your hearts, and help heal your hearts. May Faith in God's Word be a Refuge and Comforter, as you navigate the days ahead. And may you be wrapped in a blanket of love as you feel the support from family and friends in the weeks and months to come.
