“ Dearest Phrania, the kindest friend my mother Rose ever had. Pharia and Rose would go to lunch, and share recipes, and things they grew in their garden. She made the best cream puffs and shared them often. Phrainia always had a smile and a "welcome" to sit and chat. Rose and Phrania were the original ladies of Sharonlee and were proud of their gardens. Thank you Phrania for sharing so much with all who knew her. Prayers to Norma who shared her love!

“ Always the sweetest lady, I have fond memories of her taking my siblings and I to home town buffet and watching birds with her in her beautiful garden. 100 is an amazing accomplishment, she was a true gem!

“ Mrs. Poole was a beautiful diamond on Sharonlee Dr. My family were neighbors and both my parents adored Mrs. Poole. My Dad used to play pranks on her and we always admired her beautifully kept home and gardens. They enjoyed spending time together. May her memory be eternal. 🙏
