

Ralph J. Hammink

January 18, 1940 - June 5, 2015

Ralph J. Hammink, age 75, died on Friday, June 5, 2015 at Hospice House of the Western Reserve in Euclid. He was born January 18, 1940 in Euclid.

Mr. Hammink was a graduate of Euclid High School, Class of 1958 and attended Fenn College/Cleveland State University, graduating in 1964 following service in the Merchant Marines on the Great Lakes from 1958-61.

Mr. Hammink, who worked many years as a real estate appraiser, enjoyed many things including fishing and boating, hunting with his stepsons, teaching his son the guitar, and, as an avid Brown's fan, watching football.

He also enjoyed spending time with his children and step-children, and their children, all of whom survive him. These include daughter Julianne, of Tucson AZ; son John, of Mountain View, CA; step-daughter Jody and son-in-law Dave Fellows of Mentor and their sons Ian and Sam; step-son Mike Demell, of Savannah, GA, his wife Virginia and their children Morgan and Mike Jr.; and stepson Jeff Demell, his wife Paula and their daughter Courtney of Mentor. He is also survived by a sister Joan, and her husband Dennis, of Michigan.

Always happy on the water, Mr. Hammink's ashes will be scattered in Lake Erie in a private ceremony.
