“ My deepest sympathy to Keith, Mel, Adam and Joshua.

Uncle Dick-my favorite and best uncle. Thank you for the many childhood and adult memories-Euclid Beach, Cleveland Indians games, Flinch card games, baseball and badminton games and helping us and Dad with maple syrup and our farm chores. Thanks for you hugs and comfort during all the sad times.

I am broken hearted with losing you and a piece of my heart went to heaven with you. Know you are happy to be with Auntie Beula again and that comforts me. Rest In Peace.

Love Nancy

“ My memories of spending holidays with Auntie Beula & Uncle Dick will last forever. I remember skipping a holiday with my husband and his family just so I could go to Mentor and be with them again. And the Sunday visits - so very very special. Uncle Dick would always greet you with "Hello Sweetheart" or "Hello Darling" - each and every time. I'm sure Auntie Beula greeted him in heaven with a "what took you so long to get here?" Rest in peace Uncle Dick - love you! Sally
