“ So many wonderful memories. Treated my family as his family. Those exciting rides in his T Bird with him and Gerri, the great Memorial day cookouts. How he loved to tease the kids, he loved his dogs, we will miss you Rich.

“ Dear Mrs Allay Missy and Jimmy. I'm so sorry to hear that Mr. Allay has passed away. I remember him as being a really nice man. He raised an amazing family and he always included me in his evening rides to Dairy Queen with his family even though I dropped the Ice cream cone on his jacket during each of the Allay Family Ice cream outings. I will keep each of you in my prayers. Sincerely, Maura Sullivan.

Gerrit, Jimmy, and Missy,
So sorry to hear of Richard's death. I remember him as a good neighbor and great car guy. We had good times with the Allay family. Richard had great taste in clothes, always well dressed, even when working on his car. A nice man and friend to all.
