“ To the Family of Dick,
We were blessed in so many ways to know your Dad, its very difficult to put in words.
He was a true friend to be in our lives the last 10 years since moving from Illinois to retire here in Florida.
We got to know more of him sadly, after your Mom passed away and he would sit in garage and let Casey run around in the driveway(BUT DO NOT GO IN GRASS) we always found that so funny. I would be washing our car and Jan would go over and talk with your Dad. Naturally Casey would run to her and they would play. I would come over and he would run from me. Give him a treat and he was your best friend!
Dick would say "Hey, how about doing dinner tonight?". That became the ritual !! He became one of the best friends a neighbor could have. We loved him dearly!
Rest in Peace Dick'

“ To the Family of Dick Hundorfeans

We are heart broken at the passing of your Dad. Such wonderful memories of our years in Ocala. Daily visits to the pool with our “noodles” and goofy hats, sharing meals at one another’s home and of coarse eating out. Then the Chile Cookoff and trips to Disney World . Your dad insisted Phyl and I get the scooters. What a riot that day was 🍹. We got a lot of stares and got others laughing. When we moved back to Illinois, they were the first to visit us with their new addition, Casey. We loved your parents and will see them again someday at Heavens gates. Rest In Peace our friend , back in the arms of your bride. Love. John and Pam Stinemates. Illinois
