“ I only had the pleasure of meeting and spending time with Rick and his family a few times. The most memorable was his coming over to Jr and Shari's to play Texas Holdem/Poker. He walked in with all the supplies and he was ready to win. And win BIG he did. That room was the noisiest room and they had a great time. He walked out with a big smile and didn't give a nickel back. Go Rick. You will be missed by your family and friends. Your father is waiting with open arms. Judy Jones
