“ Sending my prayers to all of you. Rick was so so kind and wonderful to work with during my daughter's funeral. I just spoke with him in October about sending flowers to my daughter's grave. Rick was understanding of my tears and by the end of the conversation we were able to share a laugh. I will keep you all in my prayers. Sally Brunner McLeod

“ I was a classmate of Rick's. We hung out together from time to time. I remember Rick as a kind and gentle soul. Looking back those days are as fresh today as the day that they occurred. I remember the day a police officer read aloud our names from our drivers licenses and realized our uncles were senior individuals in the Mentor police department. The look on his face was priceless. My Uncle is Ron Cola, then Head Detective. God bless and Rest your soul Rick. With condolences, Mark Cola.
