“ When I was young, and looking to buy my first car, the best one my dad and I could find was a stickshift. Problem was I had no idea how to drive a manual transmission. My dad said he would teach me, so I bought it. He attempted to teach me but I couldn't get it, and we both got frustrated and went home. Bob and Sue were over, and Bob asked what was wrong. I told him and he offered to teach me. He patiently showed me , and I caught on quickly! I've always been grateful to him for that! But my best memories of Bob was fishing with him on Lake Erie. He was a very skilled fisherman, and we always had alot of laughs ! He will be missed. Rest in peace, Bob.

“ Bob was such a great guy. I loved his sense of humor. He always had a smile on his face and a sparkle in his eyes. It was especially fun to watch him joke around with Aunt Gerry & Uncle Larry. Bob will be greatly missed by all who were lucky enough to know and love him.

Sending love and prayers to Susan, Monica, and Rachel.

With love,

Lesley

“ Bob was a great guy! He had the best sense of humor and always seemed happy and willing to enjoy in conversation. It seemed whenever I called Susan and Bob answered, he always started with "...this is...bologna shop...." when I would say, "Bob, this is cousin Cyndy," he'd say "Cyndy who?" He was a comical guy. I know he loved fishing and would go with Susan and his grandson Ethan. Bob will be missed but we will never forget him. God bless you all,
Cyndy

When I was young, I had no idea how to drive a stickshift car. But the best used vehicle I could find was a stickshift. My dad said "I'll teach you how to shift". After a failed attempt at teaching me, my brother-in-law, Bob took me out and patiently taught me how to drive a manual transmission. I was always grateful for that. But my best memories of Bob was fishing on Lake Erie. He was not only a skilled fisherman, but he was fun, and we had alot of laughs ! He will be missed! Rest in peace, Bob.

“ Besides fishing with his father and friends, Bob loved the outdoors. He belong to the Geauga Bowman Association. Enjoy trapshoots deer hunting in southern Ohio where are the majority the time he was running from mosquitoes. As he got older and couldn't get out as much he's still enjoy the outdoors. I would send him pictures of a wildlife that I would take (first newborn Doe spotted this year 05/12) I will miss that and are always interesting conversations.
