“ You were the first person to see me come into this world...something you always bragged about...and I was privileged enough to be there when you left this world. To simply call you my Uncle isn't enough you were my love my brother my best friend...my heart is so broken now that you're gone but I know there's no more pain and you're with Nannie & Papap & your siblings...you're with my dad...please kiss him for me & please watch over me & the girls...not that I would expect anything less...you've always been my protector now you'll be my angel. I love you to the moon and back Uncle Robert 🥺😭💔

AH

At this moment two days ago, I held your hand as you took your last breath. My heart hurts, my throats feels like there's a frog in it and my mind won't stop going. The most selfless man I have ever met passed away right in front of my eyes. Nothing will ever make this pain go away, or will ever fill this void that now accompanies me. You were my knight in shining armor, my HERO, a father figure, a guide (when you barely knew the correct life choices to make yourself). You were a hop, skip, and long jump away considering we lived on the same street, I knew I would always be welcome into your home with open arms. You would give the shirt off your back to anybody who asked you for it, just to say you helped someone less fortunate than you. You were my Best Friend, the one who knew my deepest, darkest secrets and you literally "took them to the grave with you". You are the TRUE definition of what a FAMILY is, and I'm glad I got to call you my UNCLE!!!! You will be truly missed Uncle Robert!!!! Love you forever and always!!!!
