“ My deepest sympathy to the Borkey family. I met Bob back in 1994, when I joined Pepco. If I were to describe Bob in one word, it would be "genuine". He was a true friend and co-worker to me in the short time I worked with him. He made my transition to the company seamless. From my first day, when he welcomed me and took me to lunch, we bonded as friends. No matter what the topic of conversation would be, from Bob you would get nothing but a "genuine", heartfelt answer. He was truly one of the good ones, and will truly be missed.
Sorry for your loss.
Sincerely , Dave Cahn

“ I'm very sorry for your loss. I met Mr Borkey at St John Vianney's fish fry about 11 years ago. Such a nice man. I am saying prayers for your family. Natalie
