“ Bobby,
I wake up everyday with an emptiness in my heart, it's so hard to believe that you are really gone. You will always be a part of each and everyone of us. You were the first born, our oldest brother, our, “ big bro!” I thank God everyday that he chose us all to be a part of the same family. We are truly blessed. Until we meet again sweet brother, you will be forever in my heart. I love and miss you already..

“ I am so sorry for all those who must walk this walk of grief at this time. God bless my dear sweet Sister, Lucia, who has been so dedicated to her Husband and family. Bob had the gift of hospitality. I will never forget when he and my Sister helped me out when I was in between housing. They always made me feel welcomed. He was hesitant to take anything in return. Because he did it from his heart, as did She. I could see that. He had heart. He was genuine in this way. His humor was infectious. He was calming. He came from such a loving family and created the same with my Sister. I know I will see him again. Heaven is for all who decide they want to be there with a loving, forgiving God. I look forward to seeing him again. Love, Michael your Brother in Law. Love and comfort to all grieving- that there is hope in Christ Jesus. There really is.

“ Bob there are no words to say how much you meant to me. You were my rock. I loved spending time with you. You were always such a caring and living brother. No one will ever take your place in my heart.

We loved watching sports together, even when you were in the nursing home, I would come and watch the Browns with you. You were looking forward to the Ohio State Championship game that we were going to watch together the Saturday after Christmas.

I will treasure the last day I spent with you. Little did I know that it would be our last time together.

Rest In Peace dear brother. You are now my angel 🙏 In Heaven ❤️

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you. I will always remember your Dad's smiling face in the hallways at the nursing home. I even got the opportunity to hear him play the piano a few times as I was walking by taking the food to the ACU unit. RIP Mr. Dudas.

“ I love you Bobby and think about you every day, all day. I hope you are with our family in Heaven and eating your favorite food, veal cutlets. I always remember our childhood watching Goulardi and our teen tears. I still remember your mom putting us in your crib. When were 3 and 4 years old. Until we see each other again, a big hug and all my love. <3

“ TO Lucia, Alice, Katie, Becky, Melissa, Mari, Jon, Tina, Candace, Peg, Linda, Ron, Shirley, Rick, and all relatives and friends of Robert A. Dudas,

Please accept our most sincere condolences of the loss of Bobby earlier this week. Even though Bob was a memorable cousin to many of us in the Dudas, Swartz, Nocera, and Toth families.

One of the most memorable events remembered was attending Bob's High School Graduation party, which was held in the backyard of Aunt Josephine and Uncle Alex's home on Vinewood Drive in Wickliffe. During the Party, Bobby and his friends assembled with their instruments to perform for the Partiers. That was a memorable performance witnessed by his 13 year old cousin (at the time).

Rest in Peace Bob (say hello to your Mom and Dad).

Love,
