

Robert E. "Bob" Bandy

April 8, 1930 - April 19, 2015

Robert E. "Bob" Bandy, of Mentor, fell asleep in death at his home on Sunday April 19, 2015 after battling lung cancer. He worked at Lincoln Electric in Euclid for 35 years before retiring in May of 1990.

As one of Jehovah Witnesses, Bob had the privilege of serving as an elder for decades. His love and genuine zeal touched the lives of not only his family, who loved him very much, but countless others. He had absolute confidence in the Bible's guarantee of a resurrection to life on earth (John 5:28, 29), where along with his loving wife Ann, who preceded him in 2013, will be alive again.

Bob is survived by his children, Robert and June Bandy, Steve and Maryann Bandy, Charlie Bandy, and Missy and Joe Moses. He also had four grandchildren...Troy, Tiffany, Brianna and Christopher Bandy; as well as one great grandchild Ciara Bandy.

His two sisters, Rachel Poteet of Dalton Georgia, and Marcy Kilgore of Chatsworth Georgia are his only surviving siblings. Bob was preceded in death by his four brothers, Bandy, Boots, Siger and Jay, as well as his parents.

“ Where do I begin. My Aunt Annie and Uncle Bob were so special to so many people, especially me. They always made you feel special. I have so many memories of visits to spend vacations with them and our family reunions. My deepest sympathy to my cousins. You all are in my prayers. Love Barb
