“ I have so many great memories of Bob! The 4-H field trip to the Pan Am Games, passing snacks between the vehicles on the freeway! Horse shows, county fairs, state fairs, drill team, parades...he & Ruth were always there supporting Karen and her dreams. Honored to have known him for sure. We mourn with you all because we miss Bob, but we rejoice, knowing he is seeing his Savior face to face!

“ Bob was “one of the good guys”. Always with a smile. From endless patience pulling Kirk and I up and down the hill at Punderson, getting us into skiing and eventually spending the night in the horse barn at the Lake County Fair. All good memories growing up. Wishing you peace and the knowledge that he is in heaven now having a round or two of golf with dad. He will be missed. Much love from Lisa (Hodgins) Koss
