

Robert J. "Bob" Ready

August 7, 1941 - October 22, 2022

Robert J. "Bob" Ready, age 81 of Mentor, passed away October 22, 2022, at the Avenue at Aurora Care and Rehabilitation after a long battle with Parkinson's disease. Bob was born August 7, 1941, in Cleveland, OH to the late James F. and Jean B. (Murray) Ready.

Bob had a true passion for singing and music. Bob's career in the entertainment business spanned more than thirty years. Bob became a regular performer throughout the 1970s on the Gene Carroll Show, a weekly local televised program. He was also the singer and front man for several Cleveland big bands. Bob loved collecting and fixing vintage radios and clocks and rarely missed a local auction to extend his collection. His most prized possessions, however, were his grandchildren. His pride for them gleamed in his eyes and he took every opportunity to show them off to everyone he met.

He is survived by his two sons, Jim (Meg) Ready and Bob (Colleen) Ready; grandchildren, Luke, Kord, Anna, and Ella and his many friends that will miss him dearly. He was preceded in death by his parents.

A private family urn burial will occur at a later date in Acacia Memorial Park Cemetery, Mayfield Heights, OH.

Contributions may be made in his memory to a charity of your choice.
