“ I stopped at their home on the way to New York. It was so interesting listening to him share his stories and seeing the memorabilia throughout his home. He will be deeply missed by the wonderful family he and his wife raised. Thank you for the memory

“ *Sandy,
My prayer is that God will help and strengthen both you and Kim in this most difficult time, and I am sure he will. Lean on him, talk to him, he hears your voice, he hears your thoughts, he will talk with you if you let him, and comfort you. Diane and I send our love, we are here if you need us, if you need us there for anything, we will be there ASAP, you can count on that. We Love You,
Barry and Diane*

“ I only met him once - but for me I will always remember the love he shared with his daughter Kim. Many times over the years, I listened as they talked during their daily phone calls. It was obvious the bond they shared would never be broken.

Mr. Maffit loved the middle school plays that Carl works so hard to engineer/put on each year. He was super-interested in every detail, and so proud of his son as he toured the set and attended performances. He was a positive, kind man whose most important mission in life was to love and support his family.

“ I will always have the fondest of memories, my Uncle was as good an uncle as he is a father, grandfather, brother, husband. He watched out for us when Dad was away, he came to my plays. I will miss my Uncle I'm sure he will watch over me in heaven, I love you Uncle Bob may your sweet soul rest in peace.

“ I dated Kim back in high school and Bob always treated me like family. His kindness and good-hearted humor always made me feel at home when I was over. He will surely be missed. May God bring comfort to the family now.
