“ My deepest sympathy to Rich and family on the passing of Bob. Bob was my oldest cousin and a good man who always had a smile for you. You could count on getting a laugh from him. He had a special sense of humor. I remember visiting the Metzlers as a youngster. Bob liked to tease us younger cousins concerning their dog KILLER. Bob would command: KILLER get em. Trouble was KILLER was barely taller than our ankles. He wasn't a mean dog as I remember. He just liked to bark a lot. Rest in peace Bob and may perpetual light shine upon you!
