“ I was very saddened when I learned that my old friend and fellow attorney Robert H. Myers, Jr. passed away. I met Bob at Willoughby Hills Friends Church where I used to attend, and over the years, he became a very good and dear friend, colleague, mentor, and a brother-in-Christ. We co-counseled a number of legal cases and other legal matters over the past 20 years. I would often say that Bob resembled former Vice President Dick Cheney with the folksy manner of Andy Griffith. He had great legal mind, was a very zealous advocate for his clients, and a very patriotic American. But most importantly, he was a great friend and a very kind soul! Bob was fascinated by ships, very frequently wore very outlandish ties, and loved animals, particularly his old dog Mikey who he lost a couple years ago. He will be missed here on earth by many, but he is in a far, far better place in Heaven and reunited again with his beloved wife, Abbie. There is passage from J.R.R. Tolkien "Lord of the Rings" that is fitting here: "End? No, the journey doesn't end here. Death is just another path, one that we all must take. The grey rain-curtain of this world rolls back, and all turns to silver glass, and then you see it. . . . White shores, and beyond, a far green country under a swift sunrise." Rest In Peace, Bob! I'm sure that I will see you again some day in Heaven.

“ There are many things I will miss about Bob. He was a great boss and a kind human being I will miss hearing his stories (over & over)! I will miss yelling at him to get off the phone and get back to work, while regaling his clients with those same stories. I will miss his coming into the office in the morning and his tales of belly rubs for his cats, with cat hair all over his suit jacket. I will miss going to get him a McDonald's Coke every afternoon. As much as I will miss him, I know he's finally where he really wants to be, with his beloved wife, Abbie, and their dog, Mikey. RIP Bossman. Karen
