“ I first met Bob in the 70's when he coached our Galati's Mens Softball team at Daniels Field in Willoughby. He had stories to tell, cigarettes to smoke, and was fun to be around. He and Eva were a perfect pair. They set a good example of what a committed and loving relationship should be. I think he got the gray hair from trying to contain or control the players on our team. The smile in his picture is the same smile he had for anyone he met. I never heard anyone say an unkind word about him-there was no reason to. He was a good man and will be both remembered and missed. Tony Newman
