“ Dear friends, What an awrsome family all of you are! It has been the greatest pleasure being with Bob, when was at Lake West. He had a great sense of humor and loved his family the most. He always had a smile on his face each day despite his illness and looked forward to receiving the Sacraments each day. The highlight of my friendship with him was when we all gathered in his room and from home to celebrate his Last Rights that he requested through a cellphone! What a spiritual time that was for us all. I will miss seeing Bob, but also know he's with our Lord. Bob and yourselves are being remembered at my Mass this morning. Happy Mother's Day Ruth too. You had the best husband in the eorld! God's Peace and Good Health to you all.
