JoAnn, Maureen and I are very sorry we could not join you at the celebration of Bob's life. While we couldn't attend that celebration we will always hold dear the time we shared with you two and especially the lunch we enjoyed on July 13th. It is so hard to believe Bob is gone, but his memory lives on. We treasure you both.

Joann, we are devastated over the loss of Bob. Jerry has so many memories of visiting him in Lakewood for 2 weeks every summer as kids. Our many evenings together, the Cousin’s gatherings. AND, your unforgettable Wedding. Times we will hold near and dear. I will cherish always the dog ‘Rusty’ he talked the lady in the gift shop to sell to him for my Birthday. (The dog was a prop). You will always be a part of our family and we are always here for you. With much Love and deepest sympathy.
