Rona was a devoted volunteer at Mentor Methodist Church, where she generously gave her time and service. She was an adventurous spirit at heart, Rona's passions included playing tennis and flying airplanes. “ Dear Family Members of Rona,

Please accept my sympathy at this sad time. I was so sad to learn from one of our mutual tennis friends that Rona had passed away. She was not only a friend of mine and my husband, Jack, for many years at the Mentor Harbor Yacht Club; but Rona and I played Tennis together for many years at Heisley Racquet Club.

Rona was a blend of intellect, charm, strength and spirit. We shared many good times together with her and her husband, Steve. She will be remembered in many fond ways by her friends, including me, with an unbridled sense of loyalty and care.

It is hard to know what to say at a time like this, but know that you have my deepest sympathy, and that you are all in my thoughts and prayers.

With heartfelt condolences for you, her family, at this difficult time,

*Michelle Odell,
Fellow MHYC Member and long-time Friend*
