“ Brent, Kristy, and Rhonda,
I felt a personal sense of loss when I learned about your father's death. I met your dad when he first came to Euclid H.S. from Collinwood. We hit it off and after that I spent most of my lunch hours playing bridge with him. As a result, I made lifelong friendships with most of the industrial arts teachers even though I taught social studies.

Your dad and I taught at night together as well; sometimes we shared a few beers together even though your dad wasn't a drinking man. I and the other industrial arts teachers formed a dinner group and I got to know your mom as well. Later, I learned that a girl I went to college with lived next door to him in Steubenville. I'll miss him.

“ For the family of Ron Chambers. I taught with Ron at Euclid High School for a number of years. Although Ron was a member of the Industrial Arts and I was a member of the Social Studies Dept. we spent lunch times together and played cards during our lunch period. In addition, Ron and I attended a number of faculty parties and events, He was a very fine person and very friendly and always pleasant. I have many pleasant memories of Ron and our other associates at Euclid High School. I admired his talent with woodworking and I considered him a close friend. In fact, we gave him the nick name of Chips because of his woodworking skills. My condolences to all members of Ron's family. We have lost a good friend, May his soul rest in peace.

“ Kristy, Rhonda and Brent, I am sorry for your loss. Ron was my first boss when he was Pool Manager at Mentor Rec. Park and he taught me so much about how to be a good employee. He modeled how to be a good manager. Ron was kind, fun and kept a group of teenagers/young adult lifeguards in line when we were a little wild. I am so grateful to have had him in my life.

“ Deepest sympathy to Kristy, Rhonda and Brent on the passing of your Dad and as a grandfather to the rest of the family. Sending prayers for strength and caring during this sad time. I really liked your Dad. He was a smart, kind man who showed his love for your family. He was a nurturing soul. He was so good at growing plants and taking care of your family's gardens and landscaping. Ron was artistic. I still have the cardinal and tree carving that he made and painted for Dad featured in my living room. He loved your Mom, his eyes would light up when she walked into a room. He was a true gentleman and he will be missed. Eternal memory. God bless him and your entire family.
