“ Dear Brandon & Brooke, you do not know me but your father was a huge role model in my life. Ron and I spent many nights chatting about business as we worked together and he mentored me. Brooke there were many times we would be coming home from an appointment and he would make sure he called you to make sure you were doing your homework. Brandon your dad was so proud of you! He would talk about how you were hanging out with friends and getting ready to go off to school. You two were talked about everyday, to everyone he talked too. He was always worried about his health and what could happen if he wasn't here for you kids. My condolences. If you need anything at all my number is saved in his phone!

“ Dearest Brandon and Brooke, we are so sorry for the loss of your dad. I know he will watch over you and see you continue to grow into the wonderful people he always knew you would become. I know his love for you was immeasurable. He expressed his pride in you both often, and his love shined through.. Having you all as our neighbors has been a gift as you two made his life special and you've made our life special as well. You are part of our family and your dad will always be a part of you. Love, Beth Paul Josh n Julia xo
